

So..What do you get a baby bird for a gift?

Bird TLC desperately needs Cash Donations to pay for the 300 to 500 baby birds we receive every spring Or we could use any of the items listed below (we especially need large packages of paper towels & Kleenex).

Baby Shower Gifts/Needs List for Baby Birds

- Small Baskets (craft baskets or laundry baskets to house babies)
- Netting (like is used for screens, it's sold in a roll)
- Stir sticks or something similar (to feed the babies with)
- Clothes Pins (to hold the screens in place)
- Heating Pads (to keep the babies warm)
- Lamps (to keep the bigger babies warm)
- Extension Cords (to get power to the heating pads)
- Paper Towels (Lots!)
- Kleenex, unscented only (for baby nest material)
- Tums (to put in the baby diet for calcium)
- Canned Science Diet Feline Growth (for the baby diet)
- Bleach (to keep the baby stuff clean & sterile)
- Chick waterers (for the duckies!) At Alaska Mill & Feed
- Non-medicated duck/goose starter (for the duckies)
- Pine Nuts (to wean our seed eaters)
- Sunflower Seed (to wean our seed eaters)
- Quart Mason Jars (for the chick waterers)
- Old Towels (to keep everyone clean)
- Blood worms (dried)
- Tubiflex worms (dried)
- Mealworms (live)
- Waxworms (live)

Donations of cash can be given in lieu of live worms!